

Origo table

A geometric interaction between volcanic rock and opal glass diffuser. Two geometrical spheres of contrasting yet complementary materials. A compact size made for an intimate moment. The smooth dimmer allows Origo table to shift from sculpture to table lamp and all emotions in between.

A play of light falling over recinto and its supporting surface. Spreading a warm environmental light and highlighting the texture and character of the volcanic rock. A perfect elegant and compact size with a contemporary aesthetic.
